JUDGMENT

This transfer petition is filed by the wife in O.P.49/06 to transfer the said case from Family Court, Manjeri to Family Court, Wayanad. It is submitted that her house is situated in an interior place at Wayanad and it may not be possible for her to reach the Manjeri Court at 11'0 clock and further she has got a seven year old child and there is financial difficulty and absence of elders to accompany and therefore, requests the case to be transferred to the Family Court, Wayanad, where the maintenance case filed by her is pending. Respondent served. The averments are not controverted. Even otherwise the averments in the writ petition itself would show the difficulty that is experienced by a lady to travel from the interior part of Wayanad to Manjeri. So the grounds are genuine and therefore the transfer petition is allowed and O.P.49/06 pending before the Family Court, Manjeri is transferred to the Family Court at Wayanad. The Family Court, Manjeri shall give intimation of transfer to both the parties. Transfer petition is disposed of accordingly.
